

Treasurer

Seth Walsh

(Democrat)

Jay Edwards

(Republican)

Secretary of State

Allison Russo

(Democrat)

Robert Sprague

(Republican)

Experience

Executive Director of a Cincinnati nonprofit and city council member

In state government since 2017, currently Ohio House Finance Chair

Strategy

Will return unclaimed funds to their owners (not billionaire sports team owners)

Will ensure the state's investments, pension funds, and revenue are managed with integrity to strengthen communities

Supports Trump's agenda outside Ohio
Voted for HB6, funding a coal plant outside Ohio

Experience

Current State Representative for a Columbus suburb and Former Ohio Senate Minority Leader

Holds a doctorate in public health policy

In state government since 2011, currently State Treasurer

Strategy

Wants each county to decide the number of ballot drop boxes (minimum 1)

Objected when the current Secretary of State gave private voter information to Trump's Dept. of Justice

Supports an independent redistricting commission

Wants to eliminate early vote drop boxes and end vote-by-mail with few exceptions

Will continue to share private voter information with Trump's Dept. of Justice

Wants to keep politicians involved in drawing their own districts

Ohio Supreme Court

Vote for justices to uphold the law – not a partisan agenda

Jennifer Brunner

Currently on the court. Rules strictly to the written law and supports ethics and professionalism on the court. Believes justice is about fairness, equality and respect for all people. Has served at all three levels of Ohio's judiciary.

Marilyn Zayas

Currently on the Court of Appeals. Named Latina Judge of the Year by the National Hispanic Bar Association in 2024. A mother of 3, she believes in bringing common sense and real-world perspectives to the bench.
